How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use the average daily balance method (including new transactions). See the Consumer Credit Card Cardholder Agreement & Disclosure for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in the Consumer Credit Card Cardholder Agreement & Disclosure.

Payments are Allocated to Posted Balances: If your account has balances with different APRs, we will allocate the amount of your payment equal to the Total Minimum Payment Due to the lowest APR balances first. Payment amounts in excess of your Total Minimum Payment Due will be applied to balances with higher APRs before balances with lower APRs.

How We Will Calculate Your Variable APRs:

- Unless an introductory APR is in effect, we add a margin of between 9.74% and 18.74% to the Prime Rate to determine the APR for Purchases and Balance Transfers and a margin of between 18.74% and 21.74% for Cash Advances.
- Prime Rate: As published in The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the preceding month; current rate is 7.00% as of November 30, 2022. See the Consumer Credit Card Cardholder Agreement & Disclosure for more details.

*More Information about Penalty Fees: If your Total Minimum Payment Due is not credited to your Account by your Payment Due Date, a Late Payment Fee of up to $28.00 will be assessed. Any additional late payments during the next six billing cycles will result in a late fee of up to $39.00. You will not be assessed a late fee if your Total Minimum Payment Due is less than $30.00. No late fee will be more than your Total Minimum Payment Due.

Loss of Introductory APR: If an introductory APR is applicable to Balance Transfers, we may end your introductory APR and apply the post-introductory Balance Transfer APR if all or part of your required minimum monthly payment is more than 60 days late.
